

A Virtual Series

MAKE IT WORK

EQUITY AND OPPORTUNITY FOR EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS

Jobs for Life™, in collaboration with Live Well Wake, Wake County Board of Commissioners, Wake County Cooperative Extension, and Wake County Social + Economic Vitality, brings you a FREE virtual 3-session symposium addressing current economic and employment challenges.

Other partners include: Arc of the Triangle, Capital Area Food Network, Dorcas Ministries, Town of Knightdale, Western Wake Human Services Center, and Western Regional Community Advocacy Committee.

Economic and employment leaders and influencers are encouraged to attend this series of three sessions, led by subject-matter experts, focused on both the jobseeker and the employer, and the role the entire community plays in creating a healthy, symbiotic relationship and flourishing economy.

SESSION ONE

OCTOBER 13TH - 11AM-12:30 PM

DIGNITY OF WORK:

*Understanding the Barriers Keeping
Many From Experiencing It*

FEATURING: RYAN RAY

President/CEO, Jobs for Life

[CLICK HERE
TO REGISTER](#)

SESSION TWO

OCTOBER 20TH - 11AM-12:30 PM

TRIANGLE TALENT:

Understanding Employer Skills Needs

FEATURING: MICHAEL HOGAN

Economic Development Analyst, RTI International

[CLICK HERE
TO REGISTER](#)

SESSION THREE

OCTOBER 27TH - 11AM-12:30 PM

WAGES THAT WORK:

An Employer-Led Conversation on Living Wage

FEATURING: KRISTIN FEIERABEND

Area Agent for Urban Programs, North Carolina Cooperative Extension

[CLICK HERE
TO REGISTER](#)

This is an imperative opportunity to come together to discuss the current regional challenges, create employment solutions, and take the critical first steps toward healing our nation through work – one city, one community, and one job at a time.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

AVAILABLE